

Discussion Questions:

1. What is freeing about the thought that “the earth is the Lord’s and the fullness thereof?”
2. Why has God brought unbelieving people into your life? How should that shape your use of Christian liberty?
3. If you cannot thank God for something, should you do it? Are there any exceptions?
4. What sorts of things are impossible to do to the glory of God?
5. What did Jesus give up so that we may be saved? How about Paul? How can we follow their example?